About NCHPE 2026

Healthcare today relies on the collective expertise of diverse professionals working together to deliver safe, effective, and person-centered care. Preparing learners for such collaborative practice requires educational experiences that promote teamwork, communication, mutual respect, and shared responsibility across disciplines.

The theme of NCHPE 2026, "Interprofessional Collaboration in Health Professions Education," underscores the vital role of Interprofessional Education (IPE) in shaping a healthcare workforce equipped to meet the complex challenges of modern health systems. By fostering learning with, from, and about one another, health professions educators can break down traditional silos and cultivate a culture of collaboration and innovation.

NCHPE 2026 provides a platform for educators, researchers, practitioners, and policymakers to share experiences, explore emerging practices, and advance scholarship in interprofessional education. Together, we reaffirm the belief that excellence in healthcare begins with learning together.

"Learning Together. Collaborating Better. Caring Smarter."
