OBG

Dr. K. Umadevi, Sr. Professor & HOD :

Selected as South Asian Advisory panel member of prestigious operative Gynecology text book by Te Linde

Paper Publication: Every year staff members and post graduate students present papers in both national and international conferences. 12 staff members from the department of OBGYN 11 articles either as first second or third authors in Asian Journal and International Journal of Gynecology and Obstetrics of India (Details enclosed)

Staff members have given health awareness Programmes in Doordarshan and in various institutions

Details of any CME programmes, conferences and/or any academic activities conducted by the institution.

ANATOMY

Teaching Anatomy is done using various modes such as power point presentations, cadaver dissections, and computer assisted teaching – learning etc. Students are made to learn by various modes of subject presentations and seminars.

Postgraduate students of various pre-, para- and clinical departments are trained to enrich their knowledge in anatomy. Many of the clinical departments like Orthopedics, Neurosurgery, Faciomaxillary surgery, ENT etc are involved in research activities in collaboration with the department of Anatomy.

The faculty and postgraduate students of the department also are involved in research activities and taken up projects in collaboration with Radiology, Endocrinology and Neurosurgery departments.

Cadaveric workshops are conducted frequently in collaboration with Ophthalmology, Orthopedics and Neurosurgery.

CME in cytogenetics was conducted in collaboration with Biotechnology department. Many of the faculties were sent for training in Medical Education, FAIMER fellowship programme (Dr. Seema S.R. and Dr. Ashwini C.A.), cytogenetics and cancer genetics, Neurohistological staining techniques, 3D model preparation for teaching etc.

ANESTHESIOLOGY

Conducted a CME on “Recent advances in Regional and critical care issues” at KSCA stadium by Department of Anesthesiology & ISA Bangalore chapter October 2008 with more than 150 registrants.

DERMATOLOGY

Dr. T.K. Sumathy

- ❖ Member Scientific Committee of National Conference of IADVL, (Dermacon) January – 2009.
- ❖ Presented a live workshop session on Microdermabrasion in the CME programme of Dermacon, January – 2009.
- ❖ Delivered an invited guest lecture on “DERMATOSES OF PREGNANCY” at Dermacon – 2009.
- ❖ Co-ordinator and chaired several scientific sessions during Dermacon, January – 2009.

Dr. A.L. Shyam Prasad

- ❖ Presented a paper entitled "Potentially severe cutaneous adverse drug reactions" at National conference of IADVL (Dermacon), January – 2009.
- ❖ Chairperson and Co-ordinator for a session during Dermacon, January – 2009.
- ❖ Faculty for a CME on "Dissertation" organized by API, June-2008.
- ❖ Organized a CME on "Dissertation" for PG guides at M.S.R.M.C, July-2008*.

ENT

- Dr Chandrakiran gave an invited demonstration as chief surgical faculty in a State level CME on endoscopic sinus and anterior skull base surgery.
- Dr Srinivas D R gave an invited lecture on "Pinna Reconstruction" in a State level ENT meet.

ANATOMY

Since there is availability of the technology for innovative teaching, the faculties are involved in computer assisted teaching and students are taught to use computers for their learning in presence of faculty.

Interactive teaching, small group teaching, seminars and short presentations are incorporated in making the subject more interesting and this has helped in increasing the performance of students in university examinations and other competitive examinations.

Faculty participates in workshops and CMEs to improvise on teaching methodology. Every year, many of the faculty participate in conference – both state level and national level – and present number of scientific papers and publish in scientific journals.
