

Health Administrators Conference (HACON) -2018

HACON 2018, the 3rd Annual conclave of hospital administrators with the theme “Private medical college hospitals in India – strategies for survival”, was organised by Ramaiah Medical College & Hospitals in Bangalore on 3rd February 2018 at Council

Room, Ramaiah Medical College. The annual concave was organised with an objective to provide a platform for administrators to discuss issues and challenges faced by them in managing teaching hospitals.

HACON-2018, was successfully culminated with a conglomeration of senior representatives from the management, academicians, medical superintendent, executives & other delegates who actively participated in discussing day to day issues faced by admins.