

WORLD LEAD POISONING PREVENTION WEEK

WORLD LEAD POISONING PREVENTION WEEK was observed from 21st -26th October 2019. The programme was coordinated by Dr Shalini Pradeep, Professor, Community Medicine along with Medico social workers, interns, postgraduates, faculty in the urban and rural outreach centres targeting school children, pregnant and lactating mothers, Asha and Anganwadi workers and the community. The properties of lead, sources, its uses, effects on children, pregnant women and adults were explained in Kannada. Emphasis was given on its prevention and control measures.

A poster competition for nursing faculty, awareness programme and few salient findings of studies on lead was presented by Dr Anirudh Maslekar, Department of Medicine, Dr Joesvin Monterio, Department of Paediatrics along with Dr Chidambara Murthy, Principal Scientist, Central Research Lab was conducted in the hospital on 24th October 2019. This programme was co-ordinated by Dr Anil Kumar, HOD, Medicine along with Dr Vishwanath, Dr Harish (EMD) and Dr Jyothi (Paediatrics)

Photo Link: <https://photos.app.goo.gl/Sf51HDseH2F5zh8E8>